SOME REAL STORIES:

STORY 1 “There is no God. There is no heaven There is no hell. When you die, you cease to exist. You are an accident of science. Your life has less significance than the tiniest microscopic speck of dust in this vast universe. Jesus Christ was the greatest hoax ever perpetrated on mankind”

These are my father's words," Heidi Barr recalls, 'spoken day after day after day. You can imagine the impact they had upon the fragile psyche of a young child. I am not exaggerating when I say day after day. I heard this mantra as long as I can remember." Heidi grew up in Jewish home in the small town of Council Bluffs, Iowa. Her father was a well-respected lawyer in town. Having grown up in a German POW camp he was filled with hurt, anger and hatred.

At 16 years of age Heidi's one place of solace was riding her horse, Heather. One day she saw an inexperienced person riding an Arabian horse that charged around a curve Heidi's horse had no place to go. Her horse reared up and she flipped over backward and 700 pounds of horse landed across Heidi's chest crushing her.

I found myself up in the air, perhaps 30 or 40 feet above the scene. I looked down upon my body and watched as Heather rolled over me. As I floated there, just watching, I knew I was dead, but the fact didn't trouble me. I thought aloud, "I wish my sisters didn't have to see me die".

The moment I spoke, I noticed a light over my right shoulder. The light was a golden light, bathing everything before me in a golden hue, I knew it wasn't the sun. I turned to look, and I saw a man floating there with me, up in the air. He smiled. I smiled. He moved forward until he floated by my side.

I recognized him immediately as God, the God who used to listen to me in my childish complaints and prayers. -every single night! This was the God, in whom I confided before I fell asleep. The God I had done my best to ignore for 4 long years - since the Rabbi's sexual abuse started. And here He was, grinning from ear to ear.

I don't remember my mouth moving, but I remember saying to Him, "Hi, I know you!" This man was, without question, Jesus or Yeshua. His was the name that I was not allowed to utter in my home.

So much occurred at once. I wish I had the right words to explain my journey with Jesus. How we laughed (not smiled, LAUGHED) together! We were thrilled to be reunited. I was once again the child I'd been when He would wrap me up in His light, soft as a cloud, and rock me to sleep.

In that eternal moment, I didn't think of the bad things that had happened; they didn't matter in His presence. My mind and my heart were focused on him and how much He loved me. He loved me for no reason. I certainly didn't deserve His love. I hadn't prayed to Jesus. EVER. And I turned my back on God in my teen hurt and confusion. Yet here He was! Just loving me.

Jesus offered me a life review. He held out His right hand and a 3-dimensional movie (for lack of a better word) of my life began to play - not in chronological order, but I saw my life all at once, from the moment of conception to the present day. He had been right beside me. I saw Him there (in my life review) sitting at the head of my bed, right beside my pillow.

It was during my life review that I saw Him by my side, from the moment of my conception. HE (truly) formed me in my mother's womb. I saw Him there. "For it was you who formed my inward parts; you knit me together in my mother's womb." (Psalm 139:13.) I didn't read that psalm until a few years after my NDE. ALL, ALL NDE'ers say God is LIGHT AND TRUTH.

Some reflection on Heidi's NDE:

When was the last time you thought of Jesus, not just smiling, BUT LAUGHING. The laughing Jesus!! Make a great painting! - or being there as you were being formed in your mother's womb? What does this say about Abortion? How much time do YOU spend trying to get into a room YOU ARE ALREADY IN?

STORY 2

As a critical care nurse Penny Wittbrodt knew her body was shutting down from anaphylactic shock. She stopped breathing and she found herself outside her body, watching as they intubated her.

Finally, Penny found something big was coming. I refer to Him as "He", but He was this mix of very nurturing but powerful as well. There was this Light and Energy. I could tell it was the Father, Son and Spirit all in one.

And this Light... it had a vibration to it that was alive, that went through me, coursing through every part of me. And I'm there with Him, and immediately I got scared. I was like, Oh, no, He's going to look at all the stuff I've done wrong, that I'm so ashamed of. And He wasn't judging me. He was super loving, but I was just wanting to hide. And He soothed me about that, and I knew we were going to go through my life. But all those things that I was dreading never came up. But these other things came up. First, He showed me the good; like a scene in a grocery store that I had forgotten. There was a woman in line in front of me and she was short just a couple of dollars. She was trying to figure out what to put back...and I said, "It's okay, it's okay---I've got it." And I gave her the money I'm seeing this scene like I'm there and immediately it flashes forward and I see this same woman working in a food pantry. She's blessing these people with food. And God said. "I want you to see the ripple effect of every little act of kindness."

And then we went through some of the negative things. God showed me the negative thoughts I carried, and He said, "Let me explain something to you a thought has a certain energy to it. A word has even more. And an action has even more than that. But it all starts with a thought".

He said, "When you spend your energy on this and you're thinking these negative thoughts, it hurts you, because the energy impacts you." We have been writing this ENERGY for years in "Of Seeds and Flowers."

Then He showed me how my negative thoughts about them is like energy that attaches to them and only increases their tendency to be that way. And this is why forgiving is so important.

When Randy, a CEO from San Diego, was taught by Jesus during his NDE that moment by moment, dependence on the Holy Spirit is the way we live connected to God and accomplish our purpose on earth. But we must learn that we live in a world at war, a clash of kingdoms. It is a spiritual war being fought with God's truth against the evil of lies of evil. This includes evil in the form of deceptive thoughts that often attack our minds. When Randy asked about this Jesus explained:

"The warfare you see is the fighting between my angels and those who have fallen... My angels direct my beloved to me, and when a person receives truth he or she is freed to receive my truth giving. The demons you see spread lies. They want to confuse my beloved so that they cannot hear the truth, and in so doing, they blind their victims to me. My spirit speaks truth and the demons speak deceit and lies seeking to confuse."

The next question within me caused me to become anxious, as though I would insult Jesus by asking it. Yet , I had to ask it. "Dear Lord, why can you not reveal my purpose to me now?"

"My dear child, each person in the world must discover their purpose each day. If I were to reveal your purpose in full, leaving nothing to question, you would not rely on me....You must trust me and continually seek my revelation, so that you will not only know your purpose, but also so that you will be empowered by my spirit to fulfill our purpose." Jesus also explained to Randy, "When I speak to my children in the world, it is my Spirit that speaks."

In sharing these 3 stories I feel like a kid in a candy factory. THERE IS SO VERY MUCH MORE, BUT YOU HAVE TO READ THE BOOK. If a million people visited the South Pole, and said they did, would you believe the South Pole was real? Would this enrich your understanding of the world in which YOU LIVE?

There is a story of a Japanese businessman who had been incredibly successful commercially. He had everything he needed materially and now he decides that he needs to achieve spiritual enlightenment. He goes to visit one of the oldest and most respected gurus in Japan and asks if he may be taught spiritual insight and truth.

The old man said that before they could discuss this further, they needed to have tea. As custom demanded tea was brought with much care and ceremony, and the guru began to pour the tea into the businessman's cup. He filled it to the brim and then continued to pour with the tea overflowing onto the table and then the floor.

The businessman concerned, asks what the guru is doing. "The cup is overflowing; it cannot take anymore," he says. The old man, pausing, looks at the businessman carefully and says, "You are full: when you are EMPTY, come back, and I will teach you the ways of the spirit."

How's this for a piece of deeply needed wisdom why human, non-God solutions absolutely don't work: C. S. Lewis in his book Mere Christianity: "The reason why it can never succeed is this. God made us: invented us as a man invents an engine. A car is made to run on petrol, and it would not run properly on anything else. Now God designed the human machine to run on Himself.....(people) are all trying to run it on the wrong juice. That is what Satan has done to us human beings."

Thousands of CHILDREN are still missing from Biden/Harris!
CHILDREN!!! MANY INTO TRAFFICKING! How is this not seen as evil? Innocence lost; never to be found!!!!Imagine the pain these children are enduring THIS MINUTE? Just this and the killing of babies should guide our conscience in voting.

The IRS reached a happy agreement over the IRS's authority to stifle political speech of religious non-profits. "When a house of worship in good faith speaks to its congregation, through its customary channels of communication on matters of faith in connection with religious services, concerning electoral politics viewed THROUGH THE LENS OF RELIGIOUS FAITH, IT NEITHER PARTICIPATES NOR "INTEVENES IN A POLITICAL CAMPAIGN, within the ordinary meaning of those words." GOOD NEWS, COMMON SENSE ! No complaining to your pastor or Mary's Field when he speaks about abortion, etc.
